

November is CUNY MONTH

BRONX COMMUNITY COLLEGE Calendar of Events

November 1-15

SGA Charity Month

For Student Government Association "Charity Month," there will be a collection of various items around campus that will serve people and communities in need.

For more information, contact the Student Government Association Office at 718-289-5597.

November 2

College Recruitment for Mercy College Location Will Be Determined/10a.m.-2p.m.

This event marks the kickoff of the Office of Career and Transfer Services' "Career Week" (November 2-6). Start by meeting with a Mercy College admissions representative about the transfer application process, and ask questions about Mercy College. Students should register in advance by visiting Loew Hall 330, calling 718-289-5759, or emailing careerandtransfer@bcc.cuny.edu.

November 3

Global Career Market Workshop Location Will Be Determined/ 3-4 p.m.

Learn about the global career market and world of opportunities outside of New York City. Students should register in advance by visiting Loew Hall 330, calling 718-289-5759, or emailing careerandtransfer@bcc.cuny.edu.

Sponsored by the Office of Career and Transfer Services.

November 4-30

BCC Alumni Art Show Bliss Hall, Hall of Fame Art Gallery 10 a.m.-2 p.m. weekdays November 18, 12-2 p.m.: Opening Reception

The BCC Alumni Art Show will exhibit the work of BCC Digital Arts graduates. Sponsored by the Department of Art and Music, BCC Inc., and the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs.

November 5

Secret Lives a film by Aviva Slesin (OCD) Begrish Hall, Room 228/12-2p.m.

Hidden children and their rescuers during World War II (2003). 90 minutes.

Moderators: Dr. Vava Rocznik, Department of History, and Dr. Timothy Sedore, Department of English

BCC Filmmakers Forum

Meister Hall, Schwendler Auditorium/12-2 p.m.

Join the BCC Media Technology and Film Society Club for a screening and discussion with 10 independent BCC filmmakers. This event is free and everyone is invited to attend. Contact Professor Jeff Wisotsky at 718-289-5572 for further information. Sponsored by the Media Technology Program of the Department of Communication Arts and Sciences.

Taking Care of Elderly Loved Ones Loew Hall 301 /12-1:50 p.m.

Reverend James Sheehan, of Campus Ministry, will lead this discussion on caring for an elderly loved one. Reverend Sheehan is the author of The Father Who Didn't Know My Name. He is a national speaker on family values and has appeared on CBS-TV. A DVD of Father Sheehan's appearance on CBS will be part of the presentation.

Sponsored by Campus Ministry.

Center for Teaching Excellence Day Philosophy Hall, Lower Level /10 a.m.-5 p.m.

Join the Center for Teaching Excellence for a day dedicated to the tools for teaching and learning. The day's events include workshops on "Using the Hall of Fame as a Teaching Resource," "Writing for Success," and "The Power of Digital Stories." There will also be an assessment showcase. Reserve your place by calling 718-289-5075.

Employment Recruitment: Hunts Point Work Force 1

Location Will Be Determined /12-2 p.m.

Are you seeking employment? Meet with a recruiter from Workforce 1 and learn about various employment opportunities. Please bring a copy of your resume. Business attire is required. Students should register in advance by visiting Loew Hall 330, calling 718-289-5759, or emailing careerandtransfer@bcc.cuny.edu.

Sponsored by the Office of Career and Transfer Services.

Transferring to Adelphi University Advisement Session Location Will Be Determined /12-3 p.m.

Meet with an admissions representative from Adelphi University about the transfer application process, and ask questions about Adelphi. Students should register in advance by visiting Loew Hall 330, calling 718-289-5759, or emailing careerandtransfer@bcc.cuny.edu.

Sponsored by the Office of Career and Transfer Services.

November 6

Early Childhood Center Open House Altschul House (2205 Sedgwick Avenue, Bronx, NY) / 9:30-11 a.m.

Students are invited to the Open House for the new BCC Early Childhood Center. Located in Altschul House, a short walking distance from campus, the affordable and convenient daycare center is available to the preschool children of BCC students.

November 9

Post-War New World Order Panel (OCD) Colston Hall, Lower Level/12-2p.m.

A discussion will address the global impact of the Second World War in the commemoration of the 20th anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall.

Moderated by Dr. Simon Davis, Department of History

Panelists:

- Dr. David Gordon, Department of History ("America First: The Anti-War Movement and the Second World War")
- Dr. Julia Miele Rodas, Department of English ("Disposable Lives: The Short Road from Euthanasia to the Holocaust")
- Dr. Sandra Turlin, Department of English ("Global Tremors, Lost Worlds: Why So Many Americans Turned to Polish Poetry Post 9/11")

Exhibition - Sachsenhausen & Dachau: The Arrest and Internment of Polish Academics During World War II Colston Hall Lobby/12-2p.m.

Presentation of the archival material on the internment of Polish professors in Sachsenhausen and Dachau, as well as how their arrest fits in with the broader Nazi project of exterminating the best-educated members of Polish society during the war.

Curators: Dr. William deJong-Lambert, Department of History, and Profs. Roni and Mary Jo Ben-Nun, Department of Art and Music

Transferring to CUNY Professional Studies Baccalaureate Program Location Will Be Determined /12-3 p.m.

Meet with an admissions representative about the transfer application process and ask questions about the CUNY BA Program. Students should register in advance by visiting Loew Hall 330, calling 718-289-5759, or emailing careerandtransfer@bcc.cuny.edu.

Sponsored by the Office of Career and Transfer Services.

CUNY Office of Admissions: Transfer Application Assistance Location Will Be Determined /12-3 p.m.

Missed the CUNY transfer application deadline? Need assistance with your online application? Still awaiting a response from the Office of Admissions? Meet with a CUNY Office of Admissions representative who will assist you with your needs. Students should register in advance by visiting Loew Hall 330, calling 718-289-5759, or emailing careerandtransfer@bcc.cuny.edu.

Sponsored by the Office of Career and Transfer Services.

November 10

Nuclear Non-Proliferation Videoconference New Hall 23/10-11:30 a.m.

This videoconference will highlight the impact of the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty negotiations and discussions; the progress by the UN with global disarmament; and whether arms control is fact or fiction. The moderator will be Randy Rydell, political affairs officer, of the Office of the High Representative for Disarmament (United Nations). Space is limited. By invitation only.

Sponsored by Fairleigh Dickinson University.

Alternative Energy Vehicle Day (OCD) Time and place to be confirmed

Students will have the opportunity to learn about alternative energy vehicles and how they operate. The session will take place at BCC's Automotive Technology facility, which houses the only such program offered within CUNY.

Presenter: Professor Clement Drummond, Automotive Technology Program
Coordinated by Dr. Claudio Mazzatenta, Department of Biology and Medical Laboratory Technology, and Mr. Luis Torres, Center for Sustainable Energy

First Annual Veterans Day Luncheon Gould Memorial Library Rotunda /12-2 p.m.

Please join the new Veterans Affairs Resource Center as it celebrates Veterans Day at the First Annual Veterans Day Luncheon. All are welcome. Contact Clifford Marshall at clifford_marshall@bcc.cuny.edu to RSVP or for additional information.

November 12

Global Awareness Day (OCD) Begrish Hall, Room 228/12-2p.m.

This presentation is designed to help future teachers think about how to develop global awareness in Early Childhood/Childhood Education courses.

Coordinated by Professor Diane D'Alessio, Department of Education and Reading.

Employment Recruitment: Workforce 1 Location To Be Determined/12-2 p.m.

Are you seeking employment? Meet with a recruiter from Workforce 1 and learn about various employment opportunities. Please bring a copy of your resume. Business attire is required. Students should register in advance by visiting Loew Hall 330, calling 718-289-5759, or emailing careerandtransfer@bcc.cuny.edu.

Sponsored by the Office of Career and Transfer Services.

Inter-Organizational Council Meeting South Hall 109 /12-2 p.m.

Students should attend this meeting of the Inter-Organizational Council (IOC) for the opportunity to reconnect with a club, join a club, or find out how to start a new club.

Science for Forensics Open House Meister Hall 704 /12-2 p.m.

The Department of Chemistry and Chemical Technology invites you to an Open House for the new A.S. Degree option in Science for Forensics. You will have the opportunity to get information about the Science for Forensics program, meet faculty, network with other students, discuss upcoming activities, and so much more.

November 13

Early Childhood Center Open House Altschul House (2205 Sedgwick Avenue, Bronx, NY) / 9:30-11 a.m.

Students are invited to the Open House for the new BCC Early Childhood Center. Located in Altschul House, a short walking distance from campus, the affordable and convenient daycare center is available to the preschool children of BCC students.

Poet's Lounge Colston Hall, Lower Level/ 6-9 p.m.

Join us for a celebration of the spoken word featuring a judged competition with cash prizes for the most gifted student poets. The top prize is $200. Multiple original poems are required for entry, and two rounds are standard for the competition. To sign up or for more information, contact the Office of Student Life in Meister 202 or call 718-289-5194.

Sponsored by the Office of Student Life.

November 16

Orientation and Career Development Workshop (OCD) Loew Hall 200/2-3 p.m.

This OCD workshop will include information about student government, clubs, and leadership opportunities.

Sponsored by the Office of Student Life.

November 17

International Education Week Global Awareness Workshop FACULTY & STAFF ONLY Center for Teaching Excellence, Philosophy Hall, Lower Level/12-2p.m.

The results of recent departmental surveys about how academic disciplines are engaging students with global issues will be discussed along with the proposed global learning objectives.

Presented by Dr. Nancy Ritze, Institutional Research and Planning, and Dr. Julie Bolt, Department of English.

Immigration Panel Colston Hall, Lower Level/12-2p.m.

The panel will include, among others, experts from the departments of Social Security, Custom and Border Protection, and Motor Vehicle Experience, and immigration attorney Eugene Goldstein addressing how their services may benefit international students and undocumented persons.

Coordinated by Ms. Martha Charles-Glenn, Director, International Students Office.

Celebrating the Celtic Feast of Samhain Gould Memorial Library Rotunda /12-2 p.m.

Join the Irish Heritage and Culture Committee for an end of summer harvest celebration. Historian Liam Murphy will be the guest speaker. Refreshments and a light lunch will be provided. Reservation is required. RSVP before November 5, 2009, with Arline White at arline.white@bcc.cuny.edu or 718-289-5152.

Citizenship Application Assistance Day Colston Hall, Lower Level/3-6p.m.

The International Students Office will collaborate with the CUNY Citizenship and Immigration Project to host a free Citizenship Application Assistance Day to help individuals who meet the eligibility requirements to file the N-400 naturalization application.

Coordinated by Ms. Martha Charles-Glenn, Director, International Students Office

November 19

International Education Week Study & Volunteer Abroad Fair (OCD) Colston Hall, Lower Level/12-2p.m.

Learn about the programs and scholarships available and meet students who have already participated in similar international programs.

Coordinated by Ms. Barbara Schaefer-Peleg, National Center for Educational Alliances, and Professor Andrew Rowan, Department of English, and National Center for Educational Alliances

Women, Stress and Attitude Loew Hall 301 /12-2 p.m.

Join us for this important discussion with international peace workers on women's rights. The panelists will discuss the significant women in their lives who motivated them to take up the cause of women's rights and charitable activity.

Sponsored by Campus Ministry.

Body Language and Career Development Workshop Location To Be Determined /12-2 p.m.

Learn how to handle difficult situations in the workplace with composure and tact. Students should register in advance by visiting Loew Hall 330, calling 718-289-5759, or emailing careerandtransfer@bcc.cuny.edu.

Sponsored by the Office of Career and Transfer Services.

November 20

Early Childhood Center Open House Altschul House (2205 Sedgwick Avenue, Bronx, NY) / 9:30-11 a.m.

Students are invited to the Open House for the new BCC Early Childhood Center. Located in Altschul House, a short walking distance from campus, the affordable and convenient daycare center is available to the preschool children of BCC students.