Hispanic Heritage Month at BCC
September 12 - October 15, 2016, in Colston Hall [CO], 3rd Floor; Roscoe Brown Student Center [BC], 1st Floor; North Hall and Library [NL], 3rd Floor

Hispanic Heritage Month is the annual national celebration of Latino history and culture – and this year BCC marks the occasion with a variety of events focused on “The Art of Latinidad: Playwright Carmen Rivera and the Role of the Arts in the Latino/a Community.” Additionally, a cross-campus exhibit featuring never-before-seen promotional posters, Playbills, set designs and early drafts of Rivera’s plays will be on display for the entire month. Other highlights include an exhibit by visual artists Patricia Cazorla and Nancy Saleme (see below), a dance workshop led by BCC Professor Kelvin Cooper and a poetry reading featuring the work of established authors and BCC students. Stay tuned for more details!

IDNYC Pop-Up
Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Thursday, from 12 to 8 p.m., (through Friday, September 30) in North Hall and Library [NL], Room 214

The BCC Library, in conjunction with the NYC Mayor’s Office present IDNYC: The New York City Identification Card pop-up site. BCC students who are New York City residents are encouraged to sign up for IDNYC, a government-issued identification card that is available to all City residents age 14 and older. Immigration status does not matter. Representatives from IDNYC will be on campus, now through Friday, September 30. Appointments are encouraged, but walk-ins are welcome. There are several benefits to having an IDNYC, including free one-year memberships at various world class museums throughout the City, discounts on movie tickets, sports and recreation activities and a prescription drug discount. For more information and to make an appointment, visit www.nyc.gov.

Hispanic Heritage Month Art Exhibit
September 12 - October 15, 2016, in Colston Hall [CO], 5th Floor; North Hall and Library [NL], 2nd Floor; Meister Hall [ME], Lower Level

New York City visual artists Patricia Cazorla and Nancy Saleme will display their work across campus, complementing the college’s Hispanic Heritage Month theme, “The Art of the Latinidad.” Cazorla and Saleme (aunt and niece duo) began working together in 2010 focusing on immigration issues – specifically undocumented farm workers in the US. They have been awarded with the NFA Artist/Ensemble Project Grant by NALAC (National Association of Latino Arts and Cultures.)
