Women’s History Art Exhibition
Now through Wednesday, April 26, in Bliss Hall [BL], Hall of Fame Art Gallery.

In celebration of Women’s History Month, the Hall of Fame Art Gallery is pleased to present, “The Savage Gesture,” an exhibition of works by artist Josephine Barreiro. A daughter of immigrants from Spain, Barreiro grew up in Newark’s Ironbound area. This urban center and its diversity inspired her energetic, colorful paintings as well as her black and white works on paper. The pieces on display in “The Savage Gesture” developed out of Barreiro’s love of abstract expressionism and graffiti art. Josephine Barreiro earned an MFA in Fine Arts, an MA in Art Education from New Jersey City University and a BFA from the School of Visual Arts, NY.

The Hall of Fame Art Gallery is open Monday and Friday, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m.; Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 12 - 4 p.m. and by appointment.

President’s Lecture Series
Wednesday, March 29, 2 - 4 p.m., in Colston Hall [CO], Lower Level

Please join us for “Take Part in Democracy! Making Your Voice Heard in Your Community,” moderated by BCC Department of English Professor Melissa Coss. Come learn from community leaders about how you can make a difference in your neighborhood and across the country, as they share their experiences with organizing social justice campaigns. Guest speakers include Bronx grassroots activist Sid Sanchez and Wanda Salaman, Mothers on the Move (MOM). MOM has led campaigns against education and housing inequality, promoted environmental justice and fought for traffic safety reforms.

The BCC President’s Conversation Series on Democracy and Freedom is sponsored by the Office of the President and organized by the BCC faculty.

“Domestic Violence in the LGBTQIA Community”
Thursday, March 30, 12 - 1:30 p.m. in North Hall [NL], Room 109

The Safe Space Program presents, “TOPICS: Domestic Violence in the LGBTQIA Community.” Research notes that domestic violence among same-sex couples occurs at similar rates as straight couples. Unfortunately, domestic violence victims in same-sex relationships are not receiving or seeking the help they need. This workshop, facilitated by the Anti-Violence Project, will provide information and resources to assist those experiencing domestic violence. For more information, please contact Safe Space Committee Chairperson Donna Paroff-Sherman at 718.289.5873 or Edwin Roman, Rainbow Alliance Advisor at 718.289.5459.

Writing Center Contest
Entries Due Wednesday, April 5

The Writing Center, in collaboration with The Spoken Word Club presents “Hope” a writing contest. Green leaves springing forth from the earth symbolize rebirth and renewal of life. We are filled with hope. What is hope? Why do some people always have it while others are doubters? Do you know someone who has inspired hope in you? Have you had an experience that taught a lesson about hope? Is there some public figure or leader who has given you a lesson about hope? Or a quote, saying or proverb about hope that inspires you? Or some character in literature? Write a poem, a short story or an academic essay on any of the suggested questions above, or one of your own. Entries must be submitted electronically to janet.robertson@bcc.cuny.edu. Prizes will be awarded to the top six winners, which will be announced at the Poets Café on Thursday, April 6, from 12 to 2 p.m. at the Writing Center in Sage Hall [SA], Room 100. For information, please contact The Writing Center at 718.289.5279.
