Domestic Violence Charity Walk
Sunday, October 11, 10 a.m. at the Entrance to Ohio Field.
Registration Deadline is Wednesday, September 30; No Same Day Registration Will Be Available.
The Bronx Community College Departments of Public Safety and Student Life, in collaboration with the Guttman Community College Departments of Public Safety and Student Life, will host a Domestic Violence Charity Walk. This event will be held at Bronx Community College. Onsite sign-in begins at 7:30 a.m. Pre-registration is required. This event is being held in memory of SUNY Brockport student Alexandra Kogut, who was killed in her dorm room by her boyfriend. Her family began the Purple Pinkie charitable foundation and, as a result, the 5K Walk began. Please spread the word to your family, friends and colleagues. This promises to be a fun-filled day that will also help to raise awareness and be of great benefit to the victims of domestic violence. To participate, visit www.ak5k.org, making sure to indicate “Satellite” on the registration form. Once your online registration is complete, please contact Sgt. Alexandria Torres by phone or email at 718.289.5100, Ext. 3730, or alexandria.torres@bcc.cuny.edu. Please note that the registration deadline is September 30, 2015; no one will be able to register on the day of the event.

Men’s Health Initiative
Thursday, October 1, 12: - 2 p.m., in Roscoe Brown Student Center [BC], Room 211
Attention all BCC men – young, young at heart, middle-aged and mature: the Office of Health Services, in collaboration with the Association of Latino Faculty and Staff, the Office of Student Life and Unity and Strength, would like to invite you to attend “It’s All Mental,” a men’s workshop on dealing with life, stress, mental and behavioral health as a college student. Our guest presenter will be Jorge Gonzalez, LCSW, New York Presbyterian Young Men’s Clinic. This a great opportunity to discuss, in a non-judgmental setting, a few issues we all may encounter as well as some techniques and resources we can use to cope with them. Light refreshments will be served. For more information, please call the Office of Health Services at 718.289.5858.

3rd Annual Sustainable Energy and Design Conference
Friday, November 20, 8 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., in Meister Hall [ME], Schwendler Auditorium; Reception at 5 p.m., in Gould Memorial Library [GM] Rotunda
This year’s Sustainable Energy and Design (SED) Conference will focus on the two essentials of New York City life that consume the most energy and so pose the greatest challenge to sustainability: the buildings in which we live and work and the transportation on which we ride. Policy makers, industry leaders and educators will present and discuss existing and emerging technologies that best serve the Bronx community. Conference tickets are $30 per person, 2 for $50, which includes lunch and reception.
Library Workshops

Quote of the Week

“Schooling is what happens inside the wall of the school, some of which is educational. Education happens everywhere, and it happens from the moment a child is born — some say before — until it dies.” Sara Lawrence Lightfoot (b. 1944), American Sociologist.
