Architectural and Arts Festival
Sunday, October 16, 12 - 4 p.m.
Bronx Community College will host an Architecture and Arts Festival to introduce the public to the beauty and history of its campus and to showcase local artists from across New York City. BCC is the only community college in the United States with buildings that have earned it the designation of National Historic Landmark. During this special event, BCC will be an Open House New York location as part of the City’s five-borough celebration of architecture and design. In conjunction with Open House New York, BCC’s Architecture and Arts Festival will feature tours of our campus, including the Stanford White-designed Gould Memorial Library [GM] and the Hall of Fame for Great Americans and buildings by Marcel Breuer; demonstrations from local arts organizations, including dance, music, visual and performance art; BCC student showcases and art exhibits; and a “Taste of the Bronx,” featuring food from the borough’s finest eateries. This event is free and open to the public. Please register at www.bcc.cuny.edu/ArchFest

Hispanic Heritage Month Art Exhibit
Now through Friday, October 28, in Bliss Hall [BL], Hall of Fame Art Gallery.
In celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month, The Hall of Fame Art Gallery is pleased to present Split Journey, an exhibition of works by artist Norma Márquez Orozco. The featured works engage with concepts such as temporariness, perception, movement and the transformation of mental images. For these pieces, the artist assembles repetitive geometric shapes and forms, placing them inside of envelopes or boxes of translucent paper. The arrangement is random and unfixed to allow for movement and unpredictable compositions. Márquez, who was born in Chicago, Illinois, and raised in Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, has lived and worked in New York City since 1991.

The Hall of Fame Art Gallery is open Monday and Friday, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 12 - 4 p.m. and by appointment.

Library Workshop
The Library Department is offering workshops that will enhance student success in research for classwork. This week’s workshop will be held in North Hall and Library [NL], Room 210.

Wednesday, October 5, 3 - 4 p.m.
eSearch for Research
Participants will gain exposure to the research databases available through the BCC Library, both on and off campus.
