BCC Food Pantry is OPEN
In Loew Hall [LO], Room 120
The pantry will provide eligible BCC students with ready-to-eat meals to help them get through their busy days and food for their households. The pantry joins a constellation of support services Single Stop offers to help students with everything from tax preparation, housing, financial counseling, legal counseling, transportation and child care.

CTLT Faculty Workshops
The Center for Teaching, Learning and Technology is offering faculty workshops in the Center for Teaching Excellence, Philosophy Hall [PH], Room B02. This week’s workshops are:

Turnitin Blackboard Integration
Monday, November 21, 11 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Blackboard Grade Center
Tuesday, November 22, 10 - 11 a.m.
To attend a workshop, please register online at https://www.bcc.cuny.edu/InstructionalTechnology/workshops/. Blackboard workshop participants must have working CUNY Portal accounts.

Campus Ministry Quiet Time
Tuesday, November 22, 11:45 a.m. - 12:45 p.m., in Roscoe Brown Student Center [BC], Room 203
Come and be still during what can become a stressful season! Campus Ministry is offering space for a walk-in quiet time of meditation before the Thanksgiving rush. No appointment is necessary.

CUNY Month Art Exhibit
Now through Wednesday, November 30, in Hall of Fame Art Gallery, Bliss Hall [BL]
In celebration of CUNY Month, don’t miss “Back to Basics,” an exhibition of works by artist Carlos Sampedro. A former BCC Digital Arts student, Sampedro will showcase a collection of works ranging from drawings to large-scale paintings. Sampedro draws upon the naturalism of Renaissance and Baroque art to depict traditional subjects, as well as pop culture imagery. The works on display include nudes, still lifes, religious subjects and portraits, all executed in a lively, realistic style.

CUNY Month Concert
Monday, November 28, 12 - 2 p.m., in Gould Memorial Library [GM] Rotunda
Please join us for a wonderful classical music concert! BCC faculty member Michael Rose, a composer and pianist, will perform with violinist Stanichka “Stani” Dimitrova, featuring an all 20th century program including works by Shostakovich, Schoenberg, Lutoslawski and Janacek. Rose has performed in solo recitals, with chamber groups and as a vocal accompanist at Carnegie’s Weill Hall, Steinway Hall, Trinity Church, Queens College, Bard College, Bargemusic, Merkin Hall and many others. Dimitrova is the founder and artistic director of PhiloSonia chamber music series, designed to create a personal connection between audience members and classical music.

Save the Date
Sunday, December 11, 3 p.m., in Roscoe Brown Student Center [BC], Hall of Fame Playhouse
Join us as we proudly continue a campus holiday tradition, “Handel’s Messiah,” featuring conductor Michael Spierman, soloists, the chorus of the Bronx Opera Company, Orchestra of the Bronx and narrators from the Bronx community! Tickets are $15 in advance and $20 at the door. CUNY students with valid ID and K-12 students will be admitted free. This performance is open to the general public.

C-SURP (CUNY Summer Undergraduate Research Program)
C-SURP (CUNY Summer Undergraduate Research Program) is a ten-week program that offers a hands-on research experience and is open to students interested in five key research areas: environmental science, nano-science, neuroscience, photonics and structural biology. The program is open to students enrolled at any CUNY college. Students at the community colleges must have at least 30 credits at the time of application. The program runs from June 5 - August 10, 2017 and includes a $4,000 stipend, free housing and three monthly Metro Cards. Successful applicants will be matched with a faculty mentor at the Advanced Science Research Center or one of the CUNY four-year schools. For more information, visit: cuny.edu/research/sr/csurp.html or visit Alex Luma in Loew Hall Room 117. Application deadline is January 31, 2017 at 11:59 p.m.
CUNY Pipeline Program

If you are a CUNY undergraduate student and are interested in pursuing a Ph. D. in preparation for college-level teaching and advanced research, consider applying to the CUNY Pipeline Program for Careers in College Teaching and Research. This program is sponsored by The City University of New York and the Graduate Center. Over the past 25 years it has provided educational and financial support to academically talented CUNY undergraduates from groups currently underrepresented in Ph. D. programs at our nation’s universities. Benefits to participants include a stipend, participation in a Pipeline Summer Institute, monthly colloquia, report on their research projects at an annual CUNY Pathways Conference and mentoring. Please see detailed information about how to apply and eligibility requirements at http://www.diversiphd.com/. Applications are completed online and are accepted from late fall to early spring for the Pipeline Cohort that starts this Summer. Deadline is January 15, 2017. You’ll be required to provide:

- two essays (topics can be found on website)
- CV or resume
- Contact info for your faculty mentor
- Official college transcript
- At least 2 letters of recommendation (one from your faculty mentor)
