TIAA Financial Counseling
Monday, November 6, 9 a.m. - 5 p.m., in South Hall [SH], Room 112B
Let TIAA help you make financial decisions that are right for you. No matter where you are in life – just getting started or planning for retirement – a session with Stephen Baumeister can help you create a unique plan for your goals. And it’s at no additional cost as a part of your retirement plan. To schedule an appointment, please visit www.tiaa.org/schedulenow, or contact the Field Support Team at 800.732.8353, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Your Vote Counts!
Election Day is Tuesday, November 7th
Make your voice heard on Election Day 2017! Local elections will take place in thousands of communities and affect many important aspects of our neighborhoods, including schools, police and infrastructure. However, turnout for local elections is consistently low, with many voices not being heard. With only a few days to go, we encourage everyone to Get Out The Vote, #GOTV! Let’s reverse the trend of low turnout in local elections!

Fall Job Fair
Thursday, November 9, 11 a.m. - 2 p.m., in Colston Hall [CO], Lower Level
Employers and recruiters with employment and internship opportunities are being invited to meet with our students for an interaction that could lead to internship and job offers. In order to attend, you must dress in business attire, bring 30 copies of your resume and have a validated BCC ID. For more information, help with preparing your resume, or to RSVP, visit the Office of Career Development and Transfer Services in Loew Hall [LO], Room 328, or call 718.289.5759.

Film: The Bridge
Thursday, November 9, 12 - 1:30 p.m., in Colston Hall [CO], Room 203
Inspired by The New Yorker article “Jumpers,” director Eric Steel filmed the Golden Gate Bridge daily over the course of 2004 to capture the people who attempted to leap off the famous structure, the site of more suicides than anywhere else in the world.

The documentary’s primary subjects all struggled with mental illness, including severe depression, schizophrenia and bipolar disorders. The documentary examines their illness while illuminating the anger and hurt of their loved ones. Presented by the Rainbow Alliance.

Anxiety Reduction Workshop
Thursday, November 9, 12 - 2 p.m., in Roscoe Brown Student Center [BC], Room 211
Please join us for “Understanding and Reducing Anxiety,” a workshop created and presented by BCC student-peer educators. This workshop is useful for students who experience anxiety and also for students who are pursuing careers in helping professions — psychology, human services, nursing, allied health, recreational therapy, etc. In this workshop, students will learn what anxiety is. Peer educators will discuss treatment and intervention options for anxiety. Students will also learn steps that they can take on their own to cope with and reduce anxiety and stress. Presented by the Get PSyCh'D peer program, Office of Personal Counseling and the Social Sciences Department.

Essay Contest
Bronx Reads: One Book, One College, One Community presents an essay contest based on “The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks” by Rebecca Skloot. Entries are due by midnight on Friday, November 17, 2017. Winners will be announced on Friday, December 1.

Pick one of the following options and use the questions as a guide:
1. Family Secrets - Describe a secret within your family. It could be one that you know a lot about or one that you’ve been trying to understand.
2. Bioethics and Health Insurance - Do you think the Lacks family has a right to be compensated for Henrietta’s cells? Does the Lacks family deserve health care even though they cannot afford it?
3. Racial, Class and Gender Inequity - What does Henrietta’s story tell us about race, class and gender and how these strands of identity impact how we act and are acted upon in the world?
