“Memory Den”, Paintings by Artist
Jessica Bottalico
Now through Monday, November 30, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., in Bliss Hall [BL], Hall of Fame Art Gallery. Artist’s Reception and talk on Tuesday, November 10, 12 - 2 p.m.

Jessica Bottalico's paintings are a collision of pattern and light, influenced by her own domestic space. Extracted from memory and reimagined on canvas, the works in Memory Den examine the tensions that make up these interiors. Bouquets of flowers, torn wallpaper and blown out rugs are among the many objects that inspire her work. Her paintings amplify both the light and darkness of a familiar yet distorted space. The gallery is open weekdays, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. and Wednesday, 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Library Workshops
The Library Department is offering workshops that will enhance student success in research for classwork. OCD credit is available to all workshop attendees. This week's workshops will be held in North Hall and Library [NL], Room 210.

Monday, November 9, 1 – 2 p.m.
Using the BCC Library’s eBook Collection
This workshop will show you how to use your eReader, tablet, smartphone laptop or computer to access and read ebooks. You will learn where to find them on the Library's website, how to access them from other libraries and where to find free ebooks.

Tuesday, November 10, 11 a.m. – 12 p.m.
Apps for Student Success
This workshop is for those with mobile technology, such as an iPhone or Android, but it can also translate to a computer or laptop.

Writing Center Contest
Entries Due Wednesday, December 2
“Haste makes waste.” “What goes around comes around.” “A fool and his money are soon parted.” Do you have a favorite saying, motto or belief? Submit an essay, short story, poem or critical essay with that saying as the central focus for a chance to win a prize! Winners will be announced at the Poet's Café in The Writing Center on Thursday, December 3. Prizes include dinner for two, gift certificates and tablets. You may also have an opportunity to read your work for the Poet's Café audience! For more information, visit The Writing Center in Sage Hall [SA], Room 100, or email janet.robertson@bcc.cuny.edu.

Join the Bone Marrow Registry
Thursday, November 12, 11 a.m. - 3 p.m., in Colston Hall [CO], Lobby
Each year thousands of lives are lost to blood related cancers such as leukemia, lymphoma and multiple myeloma. These cancers disproportionately impact our communities due to the lack of tissue matches. You can help! The Office of Health Services is hosting a Bone Marrow Registry Drive. It only takes a few minutes. Please come and join us!

Art Pros Talk
Thursday, November 12, 12 - 2 p.m., in Bliss Hall [BL], Room 208
The BCC Department of Art presents Art Pros Talk: Animation as a Profession. See how it's done! Christopher A. Pindling, Bronx Community College alumna, CBS Sports animator and Hip-hop artist breaks it down! Space is limited, so please sign up in the Art Department office, in Bliss Hall [BL], Room 303.

Active Shooter Training Seminar
Thursday, November 12, 12 - 3 p.m. and Friday, November 13, 3 – 6 p.m., in Brown Center [BC], Room 311A
On Thursday, November 12, the Department of Public Safety will host an Active Shooter lecture with FBI Special Agent Jin Kin. The FBI is committed to working with its partners to protect schools, workplaces, houses of worship, transportation centers, other public gathering sites and communities. ALICE Program Training (Alert-Lockdown-Inform-Counter-Evacuate) is open to all students, faculty and staff. The three-hour long sessions are designed to give participants insight and response options when encountering an active shooter. To attend a session, please email Sergeant Angel Irizariz at angel.irizariz@bcc.cuny.edu or call 718.289.3684.

BCC Filmmakers’ Forum
Thursday, November 12, 12 - 2 p.m., in Meister Hall [ME], Schwendler Auditorium
In celebration of CUNY Month, Join the BCC Media and Digital Film Club, along with the Media and Digital Film Production Program of the Communications Arts and Sciences Department, for a screening and discussion with BCC filmmakers. The event is free and everyone is invited. For more information, email jeffrey.wisotsky@bcc.cuny.edu.
A relationship where one partner is in the closet and the other is out of the closet can pose challenges. At first glance, the idea of being with someone with a different level of "outness" can seem intimidating, but there are ways to look at and address these situations. Dr. Amy Ojerholm of the BCC Office of Personal Counseling will lead a discussion that explores LGBTQ relationships challenged with these complex circumstances.

3rd Annual Sustainable Energy and Design Conference

Friday, November 20, 8 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., in Meister Hall [ME], Schwender Auditorium; Reception at 5 p.m., in Gould Memorial Library [GM], Rotunda

This year’s Sustainable Energy and Design (SED) Conference will focus on the two essentials of New York City life that consume the most energy and so pose the greatest challenge to sustainability: the buildings in which we live and work and the transportation on which we ride. Policy makers, industry leaders and educators will present and discuss existing and emerging technologies that best serve the Bronx community. Conference tickets are $30 per person, 2 for $50, which includes lunch and reception.

Quote of the Week

"A smile is the light in your window that tells others that there is a caring, sharing person inside."

Denis Waitley (b. 1933), American Motivational Speaker and Writer, Consultant and Best-Selling Author