U.S. Immigration Law and Policy Series
Tuesday, February 21, 12 - 2 p.m., in Colston Hall [CO], Lower Level

The BCC Office of Judicial Affairs cordially invites you to attend the second installment in our U.S. Immigration Law and Policy Series: Trump's Executive Orders - Know Your Rights. Angela Fernandez, Esq., Executive Director of the Northern Manhattan Coalition for Immigrant Rights, will be returning to discuss what Trump’s immigration executive orders mean, what your rights are, what to do if ICE (Immigration and Customs Enforcement) questions you and the current status of DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals). In addition, we will be providing information and resources for the College community as well as your families.

President’s Conversation Series
Thursday, February 23, 10 a.m. - 12 p.m., in North Hall and Library [NL], Room 314

What power does President Trump have? Please join us for “The Presidency, Congress and the Constitution.” Daniel DiSalvo, associate professor of political science in the Colin Powell School at the City College of New York-CUNY and a senior fellow at the Manhattan Institute, will lead the discussion. The BCC President’s Conversation Series on Democracy and Freedom is sponsored by the Office of the President and organized by the BCC faculty.

Black History Month Film: Brother Outsider: The Life of Bayard Rustin
Thursday, February 23, 12 - 1:30 p.m., in Colston Hall [CO], Room 203

Please join us for a screening of Brother Outsider: The Life of Bayard Rustin, a film about the activist, organizer and “troublemaker.” Before Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. became a national figure, Bayard Rustin routinely put his life on the line as a crusader for racial justice. Rustin’s commitment to pacifism and his visionary advocacy of Ghandian nonviolence made him a pioneer in the 1940s and captured King’s imagination in the 1950s. In 1963, with over 20 years of organizing experience, Rustin brought his unique skills to the pinnacle of his civil rights career: organizing the historic March on Washington, the biggest protest America had ever witnessed. But he was also seen as a political liability. He was openly gay and frequently shunned by the very civil rights movement he helped create. This screening is sponsored by the Rainbow Alliance.

Student Scholarship

The American Chemical Society (ACS) awards renewable scholarships to underrepresented minority students who want to enter the fields of chemistry or chemistry-related fields. Awards of up to $5,000 are given to qualified students. The amount of each individual award depends upon the availability of funding, the number of scholarships awarded and evidence of financial need. African-American, Hispanic, or American Indian high school seniors or college freshman, sophomores or juniors pursuing a college degree in the chemical sciences or chemical technology are eligible. To apply, visit www.acs.org/scholars to complete the online application form and submit required supporting documentation. The application deadline is Wednesday, March 1, 2017.
