IDNYC Pop-Up
Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Thursday, from 12 to 8 p.m., (through Wednesday, March 9) in North Hall and Library [NL], Room 214

The BCC Library, in conjunction with the NYC Mayor’s Office present IDNYC: The New York City Identification Card pop-up site. BCC students who are New York City residents are encouraged to sign up for IDNYC, a government-issued identification card that is available to all City residents age 14 and older. Immigration status does not matter. Representatives from IDNYC will be on campus, now through Wednesday, March 9. Appointments are encouraged, but walk-ins are welcome. There are several benefits to having an IDNYC, including free one year memberships to various world class museums throughout the City, discounts on movie tickets, sports and recreation activities and a prescription drug discount. For more information and to make an appointment, visit www.nyc.gov.

Library Workshop
The Library Department is offering workshops that will enhance student success in research for classwork. OCD credit is available to all workshop attendees. This week’s workshop will be held in North Hall and Library [NL], Room 210.

2016 Bronx CUNY EdTech Showcase
Friday, May 6, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m., at Lehman College

Call for Presentations: Join the three Bronx CUNY colleges for a very special opportunity to discuss the impact of technology across the education spectrum from high school through college, workforce development and beyond. This year our committee seeks cross-community, cross-campus and cross-disciplinary groups and individuals to lead discussions and share success stories, ideas, and roadmaps that can assist in leading, innovating and representing change. Those exemplary activities that feature collaboration, pedagogical innovation, institutional change and, of course, unique classroom methodologies with technology are encouraged. Whether you consider yourself a proficient specialist, a ‘work-in-progress,’ a novice or first-time adopter, you are welcome to apply! For more info visit: http://bronxedtech. Submission deadline for proposals is Monday, February 29.

Black History Month Film Festival:
“Eyes on the Prize: Vol. III
Thursday, February 25, 11 a.m. - 12:30 p.m., in North Hall and Library [NL], Room 210

The BCC Library Department presents its first Film Festival for Black History Month. In honor of this milestone, we will be showing films related to the history of African-Americans across the canvas of America. “Eyes on the Prize: Vol. III, “Mississippi: is this America?” (1962-1964) focuses on the right to vote and how the black citizens who had been denied the right to vote stepped forward and demanded a place in the political process. Medgar Evers, Michael Schwerner, Andrew Goodman, James Chaney and others died trying to help them. This segment shows the formation of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party, which challenged the 1964 Democratic Party Convention.

Film: “Prayers for Bobby”
Thursday, February 25, 12 - 1:30 p.m., in Colston Hall [CO], Room 203

In this adaptation of a true story, devout Christian Mary Griffith fights to “cure” her gay son, Bobby. Although he tries to please his mother, Bobby cannot change his orientation and his depression leads to suicide. Mary questions her faith and searches for comfort, but after the church is unable to help her cope with Bobby’s death, she seeks to understand her opinions on homosexuality for herself. OCD credit is available for this event. Presented by the Rainbow Alliance Club.
Student Scholarship

The 2016 Garfinkel Essay Contest of the Historical Society of the New York Courts is open to students from all academic disciplines enrolled in CUNY and SUNY community colleges during fall 2015 and/or spring 2016. The topic of the essay is “You, the Juror: What Role Does Jury Service Play in Our Democracy?” Six prizes will be awarded to the top three submissions from both the CUNY and SUNY systems. These are comprised of two 1st prize awards of $1,500, two 2nd prize awards of $1,000 and two 3rd Prize awards of $500. The SUNY and CUNY prizes will be awarded independently of each other. Visit http://bit.do/garfinkel for questions rules and tips to write a winning essay. The final deadline for submissions is midnight on Friday, April 1, 2016.
