Student Paid Internship

Code to Work has partnered with New York City's leading tech startup accelerators to offer an amazing and unique summer internship experience to talented, community college students. Spend six weeks this summer working and learning alongside some of today's most talented tech entrepreneurs. Apply your coding skills to help a new company achieve liftoff. Once you graduate from school, Code to Work will help you find a permanent tech job. To qualify, you must know at least one programming language and you must be available to work full-time, as well as attend program activities on some nights and weekends, between July 5 and August 12, 2016. Interested? Contact Noelia Beltran-Polanco, Internship Coordinator, for an appointment at noelia.beltran-polanco@bcc.cuny.edu, or call 718.289.5700, Ext. 3633.

Art Exhibition

Through Thursday, May 5, in Bliss Hall of Fame Art Gallery, Monday - Wednesday, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.; Thursday, 12 to 4 p.m. and Friday, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Don't miss We Can't All Have Good Taste and a Sense of Humor, an exhibition of works by artist Gina Dawson. Join us for an artist's reception on Thursday, April 14, from 2 - 4 p.m. Light refreshments will be served. This exhibition features sculptures Dawson has made over the past two years. The objects and crafts she uses are all personal and reflect on earlier notions of good taste, while their arrangements reflect an education that has corrected those apparent misconceptions. Dawson's works explore the labor of being an artist, the desire to believe, and owning up to bad ideas. For more information, contact gallery directors Mary Jo Ben-Nun at maryjo.ben-nun@bcc.cuny.edu or Andrea Ortuño at andrea.ortuno@bcc.cuny.edu.

4th Annual BCC Faculty Day

Friday, April 15, 9 a.m. - 4:15 p.m.

Faculty Day is an opportunity for all members of the campus community to come together to share research, creative works, and pedagogical ideas to build interdisciplinary cooperation at BCC. Faculty Day is organized by the Committee on Instruction and Professional Development (CIPD) with the support of the Office of Academic and Student Success and the Center for Teaching, Learning, and Technology. This year Faculty Day will feature the work of more than 30 faculty members, including panel discussions, poster presentations, workshops, and a dance performance. Our keynote address, “An Immigrant Poet’s Perspective: Community College and the American Dream,” will be delivered by Maria Mazzotti Gillan, poet and professor at Passaic Community College and Binghamton University-SUNY. For a full schedule of the day’s events, please visit www.bcc.cuny.edu.

Nursing Informational Session

Wednesday, April 20, 2 - 3 p.m., Carl Polowczyk Hall [CP], 4th Floor

The Department of Nursing and Allied Health Sciences invites you to an informational session about the BCC Registered Nursing program. You are invited to attend to learn all about the program entrance requirements.
Film: Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown
Thursday, April 14, 12 - 2 p.m., in Colston Hall [CO], Room 203

This 1988 Spanish black comedy-drama film was written and directed by Pedro Almodóvar. A woman’s lover leaves her and she tries to contact him to find out why he’s left. She confronts his wife and son, who are as clueless as she. Meanwhile her girlfriend is afraid the police are looking for her because of her boyfriend’s criminal activities. They talk to a female lawyer, who turns out to be the lover’s new lover, and everyone’s path keeps crossing each other’s in a very complicated and confusing manner. Sponsored by the Rainbow Alliance Club. OCD credit is available for this event.

10th Annual Kid’s Comic Con
Saturday, April 23, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. in Colston Hall [CO], Lower Level

Ten years ago this month the concept for the Kid’s Comic Con arts and education program was developed by long time comic book and graphic novel writer Alex Simmons and BCC director of Collaborative Education Gene Adams. The two sought to create a fun arts and learning comic book convention event that would benefit Bronx children and families. Don’t miss this fun-filled and eye-opening journey into the world of comics and graphic novels! Kid’s Comic Con (KCC) provides free art and writing workshops which offer children and adults creative tips on making comics and features lots of folks in superhero costumes! Over 45 professional illustrators and writers volunteer their time to teach and offer suggestions to novice participants. Each child attending KCC receives a bundle of free books and other arts materials, courtesy of comic book publishers such as Marvel Comics, Viz Media, Random House, and Archie Comics.
