What is The Learning Commons?
Open Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. - 8 p.m. and Saturday, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., in Meister Hall [ME], SB-003

The Learning Commons is home to centralized academic support services, including group, peer and individual tutoring, supplemental instruction and exam review sessions. The Commons is also designed to encourage collaborative learning among students. Study rooms are available with whiteboards to work on group projects or study. Students may opt to find a comfortable spot on one of the many sofas in the Commons to catch up on their reading and studies. The Commons has computers and laptops available for research. Vending machines are also accessible. For information, contact Sahidha Odige, Academic Support Services Manager at 718.289.3139.

Reflecting on September 11th
Wednesday, September 7, 2 - 3:30 p.m., in Roscoe Brown Student Center [BC], Room 211

This year will mark the 15th anniversary of the terrorist attacks on New York, Pennsylvania and Washington DC, which killed almost 3,000 people. The Office of the President, with the Department of History, invites the BCC community to join us for “Democracy, Freedom and Security: Reflecting on September 11th,” the first of the 2016-17 President’s Conversation Series on Democracy and Freedom. We will discuss how the attacks challenged our understandings of democracy, freedom and security. We will also consider how September 11th continues to affect society and politics in the United States and globally. Featured speakers include family members of victims of the 2001 attacks. Come hear their stories and share your own. For information or questions about this event, please contact Mara Lazda, Department of History by email at mara.lazda@bcc.cuny.edu.
