This year will mark the 15th anniversary of the terrorist attacks on New York, Pennsylvania and Washington DC, which killed almost 3,000 people. The Office of the President, with the Department of History, invites the BCC community to join us for “Democracy, Freedom and Security: Reflecting on September 11th,” the first of the 2016-17 President’s Conversation Series on Democracy and Freedom. We will discuss how the attacks challenged our understandings of democracy, freedom and security. We will also consider how September 11th continues to affect society and politics in the United States and globally. Featured speakers include family members of victims of the 2001 attacks. Come hear their stories and share your own. For information or questions about this event, please contact Mara Lazda, Department of History by email at mara.lazda@bcc.cuny.edu.
