SHARE Food Distribution
Monday, March 17

SHARE (Self Help and Resource Exchange) is open to all BCC students and the community. For $20 (or less) and two hours of community service, participants receive packages of high quality food worth $35 - $45. February orders must be placed by Monday, March 17. Visit www.sharefoodprogram.org to view the menu selections, click on the “Order Online” button and follow the simple instructions – or call Dr. Atlaw Belilgne at 718.289.5971. Food distribution will be on campus between March 27 and 29. Bon apetit!

Citizenship Assistance
Call 718.289.5837 for an appointment

The Adult Education and Training Program located in Gould Hall (GH) offers FREE assistance with:

- Citizenship application - You must have had a permanent resident card (green card) for at least five years or be married to a United States citizen for 3 years.
- DACA application - You must have been living in the US since 2007, entered the USA before your 16th birthday or are under the age of 31 as of 6/15/12.
- Immigration issues - Immigration lawyers are available.

Women’s History Month Discussion
Wednesday, March 19, 2 - 3:30 p.m., in Brown Center [BC], Room 211

The Department of History invites you to a panel on Scholarship on Women and Gender. Join faculty from the English, History and Social Sciences departments as they discuss their work and why it matters. OCD credit is available for this event.

Education Day
Thursday, March 20, 12 - 1:45 p.m., in the Early Childhood Center [CC], Multipurpose Room

Please join The BCC Future Teachers Club for a celebration of Education Day! The keynote speaker is Dr. Lauren Wells, co-founder of 211 Community Impact, a Newark-based non-profit community organization. Dr. Wells will discuss how to establish educational equity in today's classrooms. Following the keynote address, BCC’s future teachers/teacher assistants will showcase the projects they have created that represent and support diversity in our public school classrooms.

Women’s History Month Film
Thursday, March 20, 12 - 1:50 p.m., in Nichols Hall [NI], Auditorium 104

The Business and Paralegal Clubs invite you to a screening of Justice is a Black Woman: The Life and Work of Constance Baker Motley. This documentary chronicles the life and work of Motley, an “unsung” hero of the Civil Rights movement. It is based on interviews and other dissertation research conducted by Dr. Gary Ford Jr., the producer who was determined to give Motley the credit she deserves for her work in the courts that changed American society forever. The film is narrated by Juan Williams and includes Dr. Maya Angelou (reading her poem, Still I Rise), President Bill Clinton, Supreme Court Justice Steven Breyer, attorney Vernon Jordan, members of the “Little Rock Nine,” Ms. Charlayne Hunter-Gault and many others. There will be a post-screening Q&A session with the filmmaker, Dr. Gary Ford Jr. of Quinnipiac University. OCD credit is available for this event.

African Women’s Empowerment Day
Thursday, March 20, 12 - 2 p.m., in Brown Center [BC], Room 211

The purpose of African Women’s Empowerment Day is to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of African women in New York. Mrs. Katiadou Diallo will offer a short keynote presentation. The honorees represent the emerging presence of African women in business, art, media, health care, education and social activism. Both Mrs. Diallo and Mrs. Hawa Bah will be among the women being recognized. The Amadou Diallo Foundation and other local African service groups will participate as a partners in this event. Presented by Professor Catherine Mbewe and Eugene Adams, with a grant from the CUNY Diversity Project Development Fund.

Health Services
Thursday, March 20, 12 - 3 p.m., in Colston Hall [CO] Lobby

In recognition of Women’s History Month, the Office of Health Services will have representatives from NYC Office of Citywide Health Insurance Access (OCHIA) on campus to help students enroll in health insurance before the March 31st deadline. In addition, information on nutrition, reproductive health, mental health, HIV screening, domestic violence prevention and smoking cessation will be available. Providers include Montefiore Medical Center, NY Presbyterian Hospital, the Center for Reproductive Health, Harlem Dowling and Bronx LGBT Health Center.
Sister Circle
Wednesday, March 19, 3 - 5 p.m., in Loew Hall [LO] Room 434

Sister Circle is a program that brings together women at Bronx Community College to foster a sense of community and solidarity. Serving as a resource group that is inclusive of ALL students, staff and faculty, the program aims to create a support network that encourages academic, professional and personal growth. Meetings will take place every Wednesday. This week’s theme is “Welcome.” Join us for fun and stimulating conversation!

CTLT Faculty Workshops

The Center for Teaching, Learning and Technology is offering faculty workshops in the Center for Teaching Excellence, Philosophy Hall [PH], room B02. The workshop schedule is as follows:

Monday, March 17
10 - 11 a.m.
Prezi – Ideas Matter

Monday, March 17
11 a.m. - 12 p.m.
Epson Brightlink Smartboard

Tuesday, March 18
12:30 - 2 p.m.
Preventing Plagiarism in the Technology Era

Tuesday, March 18
12 - 2 p.m.
SA 100

Thursday, March 20
1 - 3 p.m.
Softchalk Create

Register at https://www.bcc.cuny.edu/InstructionalTechnology/workshops/.

Self-Defense Training
Friday, March 21, 2 - 5 p.m.; Saturday, March 22, 9 a.m. - 12 p.m., in The Alumni Gym [AG], 3rd Floor Dojo.

The Office of Public Safety is offering a three-hour course, “Defensive Techniques for Women on the Go.” This class is open to all BCC students, faculty and staff. To register for a Friday or Saturday session, please send an email to Sergeant Mary Faison at mary.faison@bcc.cuny.edu or Sergeant Alexandria Torres at alexandria.torres@bcc.cuny.edu.

Quote of the Week

“I rejected the notion that my race or sex would bar my success in life.” — Constance Baker Motley, (1921-2005), African-American Civil Rights Activist, Lawyer, Judge, State Senator, and Manhattan Borough President.