CUNY Month Art Exhibit
Through Thursday, November 21, in The Bliss Hall of Fame Art Gallery. Artists’ Reception on Wednesday, November 6, 12 - 2 p.m.

Our CUNY Month exhibit features photographer Ramiro Agredo and potter Flo Kaczorowski. Ramiro Agredo is a multi-faceted, dynamic artist, pursuing his creative expression in photography, graphic arts, and screen printing. His “curriculum vitae;” also includes ceramics, jewelry making and music. In this presentation, Ramiro shares his interest in the human condition with a study of indigenous peoples, flora and fauna. Flo Kaczorowski’s current body of work uses porcelain and stoneware clays thrown, altered and fired in a traditional style kiln fueled by mixed hardwood over four days and nights. The melted wood ash becomes a part of the body and surface, leaving traces of the flame’s path. Kaczorowski feels that working in the ancient medium of clay unites her with artists and artisans throughout recorded history and beyond.

Alumni Career and Transfer Panel
Wednesday, November 6, 5 - 7 p.m., in Gould Memorial Library Auditorium.
Please join us as we welcome back Bronx Community College alumni. Current students will be given an opportunity to ask questions, as they share stories about their individual educational journeys and career choices.
