Multicultural Week Film: FagBug

On Tuesday, May 3, from 12pm to 4pm in Colston Hall, lower level, join us for a screening of the Erin Davies film, Fagbug. On the 11th Annual National Day of Silence, Erin Davies was the victim of a hate crime in Albany, NY. Because she was sporting a rainbow sticker on her VW Beetle, her car was vandalized. The words “fag” and “u r gay” were placed on the car. Despite her initial shock and embarrassment, she embraced what happened and left the graffiti on the car. She then took her car, now known worldwide as the “fagbug,” on a 58-day trip around the United States and Canada. Erin’s mission is to raise awareness about hate crimes and homophobia, to give a voice for those who are silent, and to inspire others to take a stand against bullies. A talkback session will follow the film. OCD credit is available for this program.

Join us for, “Religion, Non-Religion & Spirituality: A Discussion to Foster Campus Tolerance” on Wednesday, May 4, from 10am to 4pm, in Colston Hall, lower level.
