Student Art Exhibit
Don’t miss the Digital Arts Exhibition, our student art show for the spring semester, in the Hall of Fame Art Gallery! The show will open Monday, May 9, and run through Friday, May 20, with a reception on Wednesday, May 11, from 12pm to 2pm. Light refreshments will be served. Students of the BCC Digital Arts and Music programs will display their work including graphic arts, web design, animation, photography, ceramics, painting, and drawing. Come show your support for our talented students! The Hall of Fame Art Gallery is located in Bliss Hall, first floor, and is open weekdays from 10am to 2pm.

Free Mental Health Screening
Are you feeling sad? Irritable? Easily angered? Distracted or anxious? We’re here to help! On Tuesday, May 10, from 11am to 2pm, in Meister Hall lobby, come in for a free, CONFIDENTIAL mental health screening. Meet with experienced BCC faculty and staff for a brief assessment and information on where to get help. Free giveaways and refreshments will be available, and a chance to win great prizes. For more information, call 718.289.5873. Sponsored by the Office of Health Services, Psychological Services, and Student Life, and funded by student fees.

SGA “Go Green” Workshop
BCC’s Student Government Association will educate the student body about how to practice sustainability on campus and in everyday life. Tuesday, May 10, from 2pm to 4pm in Loew Hall, room 200. OCD credit is available for this event. Coordinated by SGA’s William Murray and Julissa Lora. This program is funded by student fees.

Faculty Workshops
The Office of Instructional Technology is offering faculty workshops, held in the Center for Teaching Excellence, in Philosophy Hall, B02 (unless otherwise noted). The workshop schedule is as follows:

Tuesday, May 10
3pm – 5pm
Computer Management - Windows (open to Staff)

Wednesday, May 11
3pm – 5pm
Microsoft Excel 2007 Essentials (open to Staff)

If you would like to attend this or any other workshop, please register online at www.bcc.cuny.edu/InstructionalTechnology/workshops.

Lecture-Recital: Clarence & Anita
On Wednesday, May 11, at 4pm, in the Gould Memorial Library Auditorium, Underworld Productions Opera will present a lecture-recital, “Clarence & Anita: Setting a Piece of American History to Music.” The performance will include excerpts from the opera “Clarence & Anita,” composed by BCC Professor Ben Yarmolinsky. The opera is based on the 1991 confirmation hearings of Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas. There will be live music, video, and a discussion with the composer. Underworld Productions Opera was created in 2004 to produce operas that are outside the box of mainstream repertoire. For more information, contact Professor Yarmolinsky at benjamin.yarmolinsky@bcc.cuny.edu. This event is free and open to the public, and is made possible in part through funding provided by the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs, BCC, Inc., and the BCC Department of Art and Music.

BCC Foundation Gala
Don’t miss the 2011 Bronx Community College Foundation gala, Celebrating 15, at The New York Botanical Garden on Thursday, May 12, from 6pm to 9pm. This will be Carolyn Williams’ last gala as president of BCC, so come and celebrate with us! This year, the Foundation will honor CUNY Vice Chancellor Iris Weinshall; Mr. Rick Sutliff, national director of Henkels & McCoy, Inc; Duke University Professor Arlie O. Petters; and Arthur Avenue Deli Entrepreneurs Mike and David Greco. Once again, we are offering below cost tickets for faculty and staff. For more information, please call Danielle Jean-Marie at 718.289.5973.

Find Your Best Laugh!
On Thursday, May 12, from 12pm to 2pm in Meister Hall plaza, come and celebrate “World Peace Through Laughter,” with the Peace and Social Justice Club, and guest laughter yoga instructor Kim Leslie. The semester is ending, and finals are right around the corner. Give yourself a much deserved break and come laugh with us. Laughter is the best medicine!

Sixth Annual Black and Latino Male Conference

Join Black Male Initiative (BMI) and the Student Leadership Academy of Social Entrepreneurs on Friday, May 13, from 10am to 3pm in Colston Hall, lower level for our sixth annual Black and Latino Male Conference. Though targeted towards men of color, BMI programs and activities do not discriminate based on race or gender, and are open to all academically eligible students, faculty and staff. Our keynote speakers will be Reverend Darren A. Ferguson, of the Mount Carmel Baptist Church, and Ms. Stacie N.C. Grant, an empowerment specialist. Our theme is “The Power of Positive Relationships,” an open discussion on the role that positive and long term relationships have on the development of Black and Latino males, along with panel discussions from relationship specialists and young people sharing their perspectives on relationship challenges facing males in New York City. See you there!

Student Scholarship

The Ehrenpreis Scholar Award was established by the History Department to honor the memory of Samuel D. Ehrenpreis (1921-1996), who joined the Department in 1961 and served as chairperson from 1973 until his retirement in 1990. The BCC History Department awards two annual scholarships of $200 in the spring and fall towards the purchase of books. To apply, a student must have completed at least 12 credits, but not more than 24 credits, and have maintained a GPA of 3.3 or better. Applications must be submitted to the History Department, Colston Hall, room 301, by Friday, May 13.
