

In Celebration of Women's History Month

Lunch with Leaders Seminar

Special Guest

Sandra Maria Esteves

Writer • Artist • Poet

Known as The Godmother of Nuyorican Poetry, Ms. Esteves is one of the first Dominican Boricua Nuyorican women to publish a recognized volume of poetry in the United States. The recipient of numerous awards and fellowship, her writings focus on transformation and empowerment through reflection and analysis of real life issues

Thursday, March 22
12:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Roscoe Brown Student Center [BC], Room 211

Lunch with Leaders Seminar provides an opportunity for students to gather, listen and participate in a discussion presented by successful professionals in various fields.

BRONX
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

CU
NY
THE GREATEST
URBAN UNIVERSITY
IN THE WORLD