

Reflecting on Our Community of Excellence

Preparing for BCC Middle States (MSCHE) Self-Study & Evaluation/ Updating the BCC Strategic Plan

As part of the requirements for maintaining accreditation by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE), BCC is currently engaged in a College-wide Self-Study process which will culminate with a Self-Study Document and an onsite team visit March 24-27, 2019. Recommendations from the Self-Study will inform the next BCC Strategic Plan (2015-20).

All faculty, students and staff are encouraged to participate in the review and revision of our Draft Self-Study. Please see activities and timeline below.

How can you participate?

1. Complete a Survey <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/6WRGDQL>

2. Attend a Town Hall Meeting

☒ Monday, September 17	5-7 pm	RCB 211
☒ Friday, September 28	10 am-12 noon	Schwendler Auditorium

3. Review & Comment on Self-Study Draft

Draft is available in OSSES

Go directly to OSSES (<https://wa01.bcc.cuny.edu/> OR BCC website > Quicklinks > OSSES), log in using your Bronco ID and password)

Send Comments to:

Jordi Getman-Eraso (Self-Study Co-Chair)

Jordi.getman@bcc.cuny.edu

Irene R. Delgado (Self-Study Co-Chair)

Irene.delgado@bcc.cuny.edu

Nancy Ritze (MSCHE Accreditation Liaison)

nancy.ritze@bcc.cuny.edu

4. Attend Additional Activities (to be scheduled)