Receiving College: John Jay College of Criminal Justice of the City University of New York

Department: English Program: English

Degree: Bachelor of Arts

B. ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS FOR SENIOR COLLEGE PROGRAM

(e.g., minimum GPA, audition/portfolio):

Students must go to the CUNY portal and complete a transfer application. Application Priority Deadlines are as follows:

Spring Admissions: September 15 Fall Admissions: February 1

Students must have completed at least one college-level course in mathematics and English with a grade of "C" or better or must demonstrate college-level readiness based on SAT, ACT or New York Regents test scores. Students who do not demonstrate college-level readiness are strongly advised to complete mathematics and English courses before their final semester.

Note to students who have attended other colleges: Your entire college/postsecondary school academic history, including grades earned from courses taken more than once, will be used to determine a grade point average (GPA). If more than one college/postsecondary school was attended, your GPA will be determined through a combined calculation of all attempted coursework. Please note that plus (+) and minus (-) additions to grades are not reflected in the GPA.

Associate in Arts Degree from Bronx Community College.

Bronx Community College graduates with the Associate Degree in English will receive 60 credits toward the Bachelor of Arts in English at John Jay College. In addition, they will be deemed to have met all requirements in the CUNY 30 credit common core.

Total transfer credits granted toward the baccalaureate degree: 60

Total additional credits required at the senior college to complete baccalaureate degree: 60

Determination of the Liberal Arts credits required for the baccalaureate degree in accordance with New York State Education Department requirements will be made by John Jay College.

English Major

English majors read, discuss, and write about literature, film, popular culture and the law from a variety of perspectives. In doing so, they build skills in critical reading and analysis, verbal presentation, argumentation, and persuasive writing. In John Jay's unique English curriculum, students acquire a comprehensive and varied foundation in literary study, and then choose either an optional concentration in Literature and the Law or pursue the field of Literature in greater depth. The major prepares students for a variety of careers and graduate work in law, public policy, business, education, writing, and government.
