President Isekenegbe introduced special guest, Susan, Fiore, Esq., Executive Legal Counsel to President and Labor Designee. Susan Fiore, Esq. explained the Healthy Choice Summons and Complaint against Auxiliary Enterprise Corp. (AEC), Bronx CC and the City of New York and answered questions to the Board.

Treasurer David Taylor went over the Auxiliary Enterprise Corp. (AEC) FY 2021 Year End and FY 2022 Year to Date Budget and answered questions.

President Isekenegbe advised parking permits were waived this semester (Spring 2022) as they were waived last semester (Fall 2021). Decals, however, need to be issued so that the campus knows what cars are on campus.

Kellis Rickards, SGA Legal Legislator, asked the committee about what other ways the college can increase revenue. Treasurer Taylor advised that one way is, marketing. He noted that there are many great things that faculty are doing that should and can be marketed. SGA President Ekinadose Elizabeth Asemota echoed the importance of marketing and advised that the college should have something tangible at this time and recommended a meeting to discuss marketing. Chair Isekenegbe advised he would invite Richard Ginsberg, Assistant Vice President of Communications and Marketing, to the next AEC meeting.

Chair Isekenegbe asked for a motion to adjourn. The motion was moved by Kellis Rickards, SGA Legal Legislator, seconded by Kathy McGuire, external member, and approved unanimously.
