<sup>3</sup> Students taking this course will fulfill one course in the Psychological Development track at CUNY SPS. If they are not interested in the Psychological Development track, the course can transfer as elective credit.

D. UPPER DIVISION COURSES

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN PSYCHOLOGY
Mission The mission of the Psychology Program is to prepare undergraduate and graduate students to be psychologically literate citizens by offering instruction and guided experiences in research, activities that address real-world and theoretical questions, and competence in the communication, collaboration technology use, and problem-solving skills required for success in careers, service, and advanced studies.
The Program The online BA in Psychology investigates why people behave the way they do. Throughout the program, students gain insight into motivation, learning, social behavior, and development across the lifespan. Students learn how to conduct research, design surveys, interpret behavioral situations, and communicate effectively. Learn more at: https://bit.ly/3Ij3Qc
