Application for the Immigration Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20)

International students who are admitted into a degree program at CUNY will need to obtain an Immigration Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20), in order to enter and/or remain in the U.S. as an F-1 student. This requirement applies whether you are a new student, a transfer student from another U.S. university, or a student transferring between CUNY colleges.

Declaration & Certification of Finances

Please indicate the source and amount of your financial support for the first four years of study for bachelor’s degree candidates and two years for associate’s degree candidates. The CUNY college that has admitted you requires documentation of guaranteed support for the first year and projected support for future years. Note that costs may rise 7-10% annually. Total amounts must meet or exceed the estimate of expenses (see “Sponsor Supporting Evidence” page).

U.S. immigration authorities require colleges to receive satisfactory financial certifications from prospective students before issuing a Form I-20. Therefore, you must attach original documents for each source of financial support you indicate. Please refer to the “Sponsor Supporting Evidence” page for a list of acceptable supporting documents. Be sure to have an additional set of original documents for your appointment at the U.S. Consulate (or Embassy) overseas.

Complete and send in this page with your application. Provide as much detail as possible.

SPONSOR SUPPORTING EVIDENCE

A sponsor must show sufficient income and/or financial resources to assure that the student being sponsored will not become a public charge (receive Federal or State low income benefits or services) while in the United States. Evidence should consist of copies of any or all of the following documentation listed below that are applicable to the sponsor’s situation. Failure to provide evidence of sufficient income and/or financial resources may result in the denial of the student's application for a visa or his or her removal from the United States.

The sponsor must submit evidence of income and resources, as appropriate:

A. Written statement from an officer of the bank or other financial institution or brokerage where the sponsor has accounts, giving the following details regarding the account:
   1. Date account opened
   2. Total amount deposited for the past year
   3. Present balance

B. Statement of your employer on business stationery showing:
   1. Date and nature of employment
   2. Salary paid
   3. Whether the position is temporary or permanent

C. If self-employed:
   1. Copy of last income tax return filed or
   2. Report of commercial rating concern
   3. Schedule of assets with supporting documents
